Hourly Employment Packet

The attached packet of materials contains the necessary forms needed for your Human Resources and Payroll files. The following is a brief explanation of these forms and some other issues that employees should be aware of. Failure to complete all information included in this packet in full, will result in a delay of your paycheck. If you have any questions or need further information, please contact the Human Resources Department at (303) 360-4823 or the Payroll Department at (303) 361-7390.

1. The first form is the Applicant Authorization & Consent for Release and Disclosure of Information. This form must be completed in its entirety before employment can begin and your continued employment is contingent upon the results of your background check.

2. The second form is the Applicant’s Oath. If you have been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor (not including a traffic offense), the second part of this form must be completed.

3. The third form is the Personal Data Form. If you are not a U.S. citizen or are in the U.S. on a VISA, please include a copy of the official documents declaring you thus. Payroll confirmation will be emailed to a college assigned email address. Please also include an alternate email.

4. The fourth form is the W-4 Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate. The total number of allowances that you claim on your W-4 will determine your tax withholding. You cannot claim exempt if you are claiming dependents. If you are not a U.S. Citizen or are in the U.S. on a VISA, please contact the Payroll Department regarding your tax exemptions.

5. The fifth form is a Direct Deposit Authorization Form. Direct Deposit is Mandatory and a condition of employment! Direct deposit will take effect immediately. Your payroll confirmation will be e-mailed to the address on file with the Payroll Department.

6. The sixth form is the Employment Eligibility Verification Form (I-9). Employers are required to have this form on file for all employees. Proper identification is required. A representative from the Human Resources Department or the Payroll Department must examine and copy your documents, and complete and sign the employer section of the I-9 form. See the backside of the I-9 form for a list of acceptable documents.

7. The seventh form is the Work Related Injuries or Illness Form. This form concerns injuries sustained in the workplace. The designated treatment facilities for worker’s compensation related injuries are Concentra Medical Center and HealthONE Occupational Medicine and Rehabilitation Clinics. Please contact the Human Resources Department at (303) 360-4823 if any medical treatment is needed.

8. The eighth form is the Employee at Will Statement. If you have any questions regarding this form, please contact the Human Resources Department at (303) 360-4823.
9. The ninth form is the Drug-Free Workplace Policy Statement Employee Acknowledgement Form concerning the College Drug Free Awareness Program. Please read the included information and complete the last page. Return only the last page with your employment packet.

10. The tenth form is the PERAChoice Election Brochure, which explains the benefits and election process for PERA benefits, followed by the necessary election forms. Employees hired on or after January 1, 2008, may be eligible to participate in PERAChoice. If PERA has received contributions on your behalf from you and another PERA affiliated employer in the last 12 months, you cannot participate in PERAChoice and must return to the plan in which you previously participated. PERA retirees are not eligible to participate. If PERA has not received contributions on your behalf in the past 12 months, and you are not a PERA retiree, you are eligible to participate in PERAChoice. Please contact the Human Resources Department at (303) 360-4823 or the Payroll Department at (303) 361-7390 for more information.

NOTE: Employers in the City of Aurora are required to deduct a $2 per month Occupational Privilege Tax from each employee who will earn over $250.00 per month. Your principal employer should be the one to take the $2 Occupational Privilege Tax. The principal employer is that employer for whom one works the most hours. If your principal employer is that other than the Community College of Aurora, please obtain a withholding certificate from your principal employer and forward it to the Human Resources Department or Payroll Department so that the $2 tax will not be deducted from your check. Your principal employer must be in the City of Aurora in order for you to be exempt from this tax. This amount is not included on your W2, but can be included when filing your taxes as a miscellaneous deduction.

Employers are also required to deduct a 1.45% Medicare tax from the wages of all non-student employees hired after March 31, 1986. This deduction will be stated as Medicare on your payroll confirmation.

Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2009 expires February 16, 2010. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on their tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earner/multiple job situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see the Instructions for Form 8233 before completing this Form W-4.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2009. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Personal Allowances Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

|   | b. If you have more than one job or are married and you and your spouse both work and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $40,000 ($25,000 if married), see the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld. |

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-8155.

What is the Purpose of the Form?
The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I-9 Be Filed?
All employees, citizens, and noncitizens hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I-9.

Filling Out Form I-9

Section 1, Employee
This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen Nationals of the United States
Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification
The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer
For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I-9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

1. Document title;
2. Issuing authority;
3. Document number;
4. Expiration date, if any; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

Form I-9 (Rev. 02/02/09)
For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying Form I-9. Employers must reverify employment authorization of their employees on or before the work authorization expiration date recorded in Section 1 (if any). Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.

B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.

C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B; and:

1. Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);
2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C; and
3. Complete the signature block.

Note that for reverification purposes, employers have the option of completing a new Form I-9 instead of completing Section 3.

Information about E-Verify, a free and voluntary program that allows participating employers to electronically verify the employment eligibility of their newly hired employees, can be obtained from our website at www.uscis.gov/e-verify or by calling 1-888-464-4218.

Photocopying and Retaining Form I-9

A blank Form I-9 may be reproduced, provided both sides are copied. The Instructions must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain completed Form I-9s for three years after the date of hire or one year after the date employment ends, whichever is later.

Form I-9 may be signed and retained electronically, as authorized in Department of Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR 274a.2.

Compare Your Options

As a new Colorado community college employee, you may select from two types of retirement plans offered by Colorado PERA. Whether you are comfortable investing for your retirement or would like professionals to invest on your behalf, Colorado PERA has an option for you.

What is Colorado PERA?

Colorado PERA was established in 1931 by the Colorado General Assembly, at the request of a group of State employees who foresaw the need for a safe and secure retirement system. PERA pre-dates the creation of Social Security, and as a community college employee, you do not contribute to that system, although workers hired after March 1986 contribute 1.45 percent of their pay to Medicare.

Colorado PERA serves over 400,000 public employees today. The PERA trust funds exceed $40 billion and are invested in Colorado and companies around the world on behalf of the PERA membership. PERA is governed by a 15-member Board of Trustees, 11 of whom are elected by the membership. The Board works closely with your elected officials to ensure the soundness of the State’s largest financial institution.

What Plans Does PERA Offer?

Colorado PERA has two types of plans—a defined benefit (“DB plan”) and a defined contribution (“DC plan”) available for eligible new community college employees. The DB plan is the traditional retirement plan, where your contributions are invested by professionals for you. In the DC plan, you direct your investments to an array of fund options.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees hired on or after January 1, 2008, at the institutions listed at the right may be eligible to participate in PERAChoice. If PERA has received contributions on your behalf from you and another PERA-affiliated employer in the last 12 months you cannot participate in PERAChoice and must return to the plan in which you previously participated. PERA retirees are not eligible to participate.

If PERA has not received contributions on your behalf in the past 12 months, and you are not a PERA retiree, you are eligible to participate in PERAChoice.

Community colleges eligible to participate in PERAChoice:
- Arapahoe Community College
- Colorado Community College System
- Colorado Northwestern Community College
- Community College of Aurora
- Community College of Denver
- Front Range Community College
- Lamar Community College
- Morgan Community College
- Otero Junior College
- Pikes Peak Community College
- Pueblo Community College
- Red Rocks Community College
- Trinidad State Junior College
Making the Decision—DB or DC

The PERA DB retirement plan is a hybrid defined benefit plan. It is designed to attract and retain employees who are interested in working in PERA-covered employment for a large part of their careers, while providing greater portability than a traditional defined benefit plan.

Unlike the PERA DB Plan, the PERA DC Plan is based solely on the money you have contributed, the investment earnings or losses incurred, minus expenses. You have the flexibility to make investment decisions, which also means you assume the investment risks. The amount of your benefit can sometimes be difficult to determine given that the amount depends on the success of your investment decisions, when you begin withdrawals, and your life expectancy.

Over the years, PERA has worked with the State Legislature and others to address issues such as portability, cost of living adjustments, and overall improvement of the benefits PERA members receive. These changes have made the PERA DB plan more flexible and portable. PERA members and the State of Colorado benefit from a conservative yet innovative approach to public pension management.

The PERA DB and PERA DC Plans are both considered 401(a) plans and are created under that section of the Internal Revenue Code.

Defined Benefit Plan Features
- Lifetime retirement benefit
- Ancillary benefits such as disability and survivor coverage
- Plan invests for all beneficiaries, and individual contributors do not control the amount of their contributions nor their investments
- Also known as a traditional pension plan

Defined Contribution Plan Features
- The retirement benefit equals the amount accumulated in the account over time and the benefit ends when the account balance is depleted
- Employees contribute to a tax-deferred plan, making their own investment decisions
- Employees have their own unique accounts
- Plan type generally labeled according to the governing section of the Internal Revenue Code, such as 401(k), 403(b), 457, or a 401(a) plan

PERA Benefits At A Glance...

The Advantages of Membership in PERA

- Your PERA contributions of 8 percent are tax deferred, which means reduced current state and federal income taxes.
- You earn a fixed interest rate on your member contributions (currently 5 percent compounded annually). The rate is set by the Board and is subject to change annually.
- You receive a matching amount equal to 50 percent of your contributions and interest if you withdraw your account before retirement eligibility or age 65, or, receive a 100 percent match if you withdraw your account after retirement eligibility or age 65.
- Your qualified survivors will be provided a monthly benefit, between 25 percent and 50 percent of your pay, if you die after earning one year of service. Your beneficiary will receive a lump-sum payment of your contributions, applicable interest, and a 100 percent match if no monthly benefits are payable.
- You receive a lifetime retirement benefit after meeting age and service requirements (minimum age 55).
- You receive benefits equal to 2.5 percent of your average highest three years of salary for each year of service up to 100 percent.
PERA Defined Benefit Option

Even if you are a Colorado PERA member for only a short period of time during your career, your PERA membership is valuable to you. The following example illustrates how over a period of time, a PERA account will grow with compounded interest.

The example below uses Jim, a PERA member who earned five years of PERA service credit before terminating employment at age 30. Jim’s annual salary was $30,000, with 3.5 percent raises per year. (Note: The refund and benefit amounts assume a 5 percent interest rate per year. The interest rate is set by the PERA Board and is subject to change annually.)

When Jim terminated employment, he had an account balance of $14,552 (member contributions and interest accumulated at 5 percent compounded annually for five years).

Jim has the option to withdraw his account as a lump sum when he terminates PERA-covered employment or leave it until he reaches retirement age. The amount of Jim’s refund, should he choose to withdraw his account prior to retirement eligibility, would be his account balance of $14,552 plus a 50 percent match, for a total refund of $21,828.

Jim also has the option of leaving his account with PERA, where it will continue accruing interest. At age 60, he could choose to withdraw the account or receive a lifetime monthly benefit.

At age 60, Jim’s account will have grown from $14,552 to $62,892 as a result of compounding over a 30-year period. With a 100 percent match, his refund amount as a lump-sum distribution would be $125,784.

At age 60, if Jim were to choose to receive an Option 1 lifetime monthly benefit, which is calculated by projecting his account balance over his expected life span, his benefit amount would be $745 per month.

Please note: Lump-sum distributions from the Plan will be subject to 20 percent federal tax withholding and, if you are less than age 59 1/2, a 10 percent early withdrawal penalty will apply. Ordinary income taxes may apply. State and local taxes and withholding may also apply. Further, most PERA members do not contribute to Social Security, so if an account is refunded, retirement savings for that period of employment are gone.

PERA Defined Benefit Table

Find the percentage in the block where age intersects with years of service. Multiply your Highest Average Salary (HAS) by that percentage. HAS is one-twelfth of the average of the highest annual salaries on which PERA contributions were paid that are associated with three periods of 12 consecutive months of service credit. Credit is earned for each month.

This publication provides general information about DB/DC Plans. PERA membership rights, benefits, and obligations are governed by Title 24, Article 51 of the Colorado Revised Statutes, and the Rules of the Colorado Public Employees’ Retirement Association, which take precedence over any interpretations in this publication.
Defined Contribution Plan

You can choose from a variety of low-cost, top-ranked funds in the Colorado PERA DC Plan. Remember that the key to successful investing is diversification, and in the Colorado PERA DC Plan, you have the ability to select your own funds based on your personal tolerance for investment risk, or you may select a lifestyle fund in which your fund allocation is done for you based on your anticipated retirement date.

Setting Up Your Account

You must set how your future contributions will be invested. To do this, go to www.copera.org and click on “DC Plan Asset Allocation.” If you do not do this, your money will automatically be invested in the Dodge & Cox Balanced Fund.

Web Site and Customer Service Center

Most Plan transactions and information requests can be made 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by accessing the DC Plan site through the PERA Web site at www.copera.org (click on Account Access) or by calling 1-800-759-7372 and selecting the DC/401(k) option. In each case, DC account access requires your Social Security number and PIN.

Participant Service Representatives

You may also speak with a Participant Service Representative any business day between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. (Mountain time), excluding New York Stock Exchange holidays. You must use your PIN to get your account information from a Participant Service Representative.

Quarterly Account Statements

Every quarter, you will receive an easy-to-read statement that summarizes your account status, including your account balance, investment selections, and the current value of each investment. Or, if you’d prefer, you can generate a customized statement at any time on the DC Plan Web site.

Voluntary Plans

You have the option of enrolling in several voluntary plans including PERA’s life insurance, long term care, and health care program. You may also join PERA’s 401(k) plan, which allows you to make additional contributions to the same investment options as the DC Plan and you have access to loans and hardship withdrawals from your 401(k) money.

Distributions When Terminating PERA-Covered Employment

When you leave PERA-covered employment, you have several choices regarding the money in your DC Plan account:

- You can leave the money in the Plan.
- You must start distributions once you reach age 70½.
- You can request installment payments.
- You can roll over the balance to another qualified plan, 403(b), governmental 457 plan, or an IRA.
- You can take the money in cash, called a lump-sum distribution.

Distribution choices and rules are complicated. You are encouraged to talk with your tax adviser or financial planner before deciding how to take your distribution.

Note: Lump-sum distributions from the Plan will be subject to 20 percent federal tax withholding and, if you are less than age 59½, a 10 percent early withdrawal penalty will apply. Ordinary income taxes may apply. State and local taxes and withholding may also apply.
Benefits

Short-Term Funds

Short-term funds are generally made up of money market investments, certificates of deposit (CDs), and U.S. Treasury Securities.

Short-term funds offer a high degree of security, designed to protect your original investment or principal.

Short-term funds don’t offer the income potential of bond funds or the growth potential of stock funds, so they may not keep pace with inflation over time.

Bond Funds

Bond funds invest in many individual government and corporate bonds. Bond funds generally earn interest, which is also referred to as income or yield.

Bond funds generally offer greater income potential than short-term funds and not as much risk as stock funds.

Typically, bond funds don’t offer the growth potential of stock funds and are riskier than the short-term funds.

Stock Funds

Stock funds offer different investing strategies, ranging from conservative to aggressive, with varying degrees of risk and return potential. Stock funds invest in many different individual stocks.

Historically, stocks have provided larger long-term gains than other asset classes.

The value of stocks can go down over short periods of time. As a result, there is greater risk to your savings, including your principal, compared to other asset classes.

Lifestyle Funds

Lifestyle funds invest in a combination of all asset classes. One lifestyle fund provides your portfolio with adequate diversification and reduced exposure to market risk for the long term.

Lifestyle funds are designed to automatically make your investment allocation decisions for you based on your planned retirement date.

During the early years of your career, these funds invest more heavily in stock funds, which carry greater risk. As you near retirement, these funds automatically shift to an asset mix which has less risk.

Fees

Administrative and recordkeeping fees will be charged directly to your account. Administrative fees are charged directly to participants on a monthly basis based on the participant’s account balance as shown on the table at right.

Each investment fund charges an investment management fee, which participants pay directly by having the fee deducted from the investment fund’s return. Fees for each fund are listed in the Investment Funds Available table on the next page.

You may also obtain fee information on the DC Plan Web site or by calling 1-800-759-7372 and selecting the DC/401(k) option.

* All fees subject to review and change

Types of Investments

If you choose to participate in PERA’s DC Plan, you have a variety of investment options to choose from. The table below explains the four main investment classes available to you. When building your portfolio, keep in mind your goals, risk tolerance, and time horizon for retirement. And remember, neither diversification nor asset allocation ensures a profit or guarantees against a loss.

Dear PERAChoice Member:

As an employee of the Colorado Community College system hired after January 1, 2008, you must choose your retirement plan. Complete this form and choose between the Colorado PERA Defined Benefit (DB) or Defined Contribution (DC) Plan. Both plans are a substitute for Social Security.

If you are unsure if you're eligible to participate in PERAChoice, contact your employer's human resources office, or call PERA's Customer Service Center at 1-800-PERA (7372) or 303-832-9550.

More Information

Information about both the PERA DB and PERA DC plans are available from your employer’s human resources office or PERA. You may call PERA’s Customer Service Center at 1-800-PERA (7372) or 303-832-9550 to request information. PERA’s Web site, www.copera.org, also has information about the plans available to you.

Next Steps

Depending on your choice, there is additional paperwork you will need to complete. All applicable forms are available on the PERA Web site.

If you choose PERA DB: Complete a PERA Member Information Form to designate a beneficiary.

If you choose PERA DC: Complete a PERA DC Plan Beneficiary Designation Form to designate a beneficiary. You should also set how your future contributions will be invested by going to www.copera.org and clicking on “DC Plan Asset Allocation.”

Switching Plans

If you are eligible for PERAChoice, you have the option to stop participating in your PERA DB account and begin participation in a PERA DC account or stop participating in your PERA DC account and begin participation in a PERA DB account. This is a one-time option and the change can only be made in years two through five of participation in the plan. For more information, refer to the PERAChoice Years 2-5 Change/Transfer Form.
For Colorado Community College System employees only. You must submit this form to your human resources office promptly, but no later than 60 calendar days from your date of hire. The 60 calendar days start with and include your date of hire. If you do not complete and return this form to your human resources office within 60 calendar days from your first day of employment, you will be automatically enrolled in PERA DB. You may obtain information about each of the plans available to you from PERA or your employer’s human resources office. You may call PERA to discuss these plans at 1-800-759-PERA (7372) or 303-832-9550.

To New Colorado PERA Members:

Welcome to membership in the Colorado Public Employees' Retirement Association (PERA).

As an employee of a public employer affiliated with Colorado PERA, you may or may not pay Social Security tax depending on whether your employer contributes to both PERA and Social Security. Colorado PERA is a qualified retirement plan that can substitute for Social Security, as required by law.

Upon receipt of this form, PERA will establish a member contribution account for you. You will contribute 8 percent of your salary to the account through payroll deduction. PERA pays interest on your contributions at a rate determined by the Board. The rate is currently 5 percent per year and is subject to change annually. Your PERA contributions are tax-deferred—that is, they are not subject to federal or state income tax until they are withdrawn or received as a monthly benefit. Your contributions and interest will always be returned to you, either in the form of a lump-sum withdrawal or a monthly benefit.

While our mission is to provide members with retirement benefits, we also provide the following other benefits:

- Monthly benefits to your qualified survivors if you die after one year of PERA service.
- Disability coverage after you have five years of earned service credit.
- A voluntary life insurance program in which you may participate immediately.
- A voluntary 401(k) plan in which you may participate immediately. Contribution limits change annually; additional contribution amounts are allowed if you are age 50 or older. For more information on the 401(k) Plan, please call 1-800-759-7372 and select the 401(k) option or go to PERA's Web site at www.copera.org and select "401(k) Information" located on the PERA home page.
- A voluntary long term care insurance program available to you and other family members.

After PERA receives this completed Member Information Form, we will mail you a PERA membership packet that contains details about your benefits. For more information about these benefits, go to the PERA Web site at www.copera.org.

When you end PERA-covered employment, you may leave your member contribution account with PERA (it will continue to earn interest). If you return to PERA-covered employment, your account will be ready to accept additional contributions and you will build additional service credit. If you leave your account at PERA be sure to keep us informed of your address to prevent your account from being transferred to the State's Unclaimed Property Fund.

If you were previously covered by PERA and withdrew your member contribution account, you may purchase service credit based on this refunded account when you have one year of earned service credit. You may also be able to purchase service credit for employment not covered by PERA or another pension plan. See the Purchasing Service Credit booklet for more information.

Again, welcome to Colorado PERA! We will strive to inform you about your PERA benefits by sending you the PERA Member Report newsletter three times per year, a statement of your account annually after your first year of membership, and other publications.

To Members Changing Information:

- If you have changed your name, changed employers, or want to change your address or beneficiary(ies), complete this form and send it to PERA. PERA requires a new copy of your Social Security card only if you have changed your name since sending in your initial copy.

MEMORANDUM

TO: All hourly & workstudy employees

FROM: Payroll

SUBJECT: Timesheet Deadlines

Payroll timesheets are due in Payroll no later than noon on the Monday following each payday. Timesheets may be brought directly to the Payroll Office or dropped off in the payroll box outside of the Fiscal Affairs Department. The payroll box will not be checked after the noon deadline. When a timesheet is received in the Payroll Office after the noon deadline, it will be date stamped and processed with the next biweekly payroll.

If you are unable to deliver your timesheet to the Payroll Office before the noon deadline, you have the option of faxing your timesheet to (303) 360-4761. All timesheets must include an employee signature and a supervisor’s signature. Those timesheets without a supervisor’s signature will be returned to the supervisor and will delay payment. The fax machine automatically records the date and time the fax was received.

An employee’s timesheet cannot be processed unless the proper employee paperwork is completed in full with Human Resources or the Payroll Office. Please contact the Payroll Office at (303) 361-7390 with any payroll related questions.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.
